

2018 Grant Application

Jessie Street often used her own money to provide seeding grants to active organisations. The Trust is carrying on that tradition. The Jessie Street Trust provides a seeding grant each year to organisations which work in one of the areas of Jessie's interests, which included: women's rights, Aboriginal rights, peace and disarmament and the elimination of all forms of discrimination.

In 2018 the Trust intends to give a grant of $10,000, as a seeding grant for a project that aims to support efforts to advance the cause of nuclear disarmament.

Applicant details

Name of applicant organisation:

Name of key contact:

Address:

Email address:

Contact phone number:

Referee 1 contact details:

Referee 2 contact details:

Questions for applicants

1. Name of project
2. Outline of project (250 words max)
3. Date of commencement of project:
4. Anticipated date of completion of project:
5. Has any other funding been applied for or received for this project?
6. How will the Jessie Street grant money be used?
7. How will your project contribute to promoting nuclear disarmament?

The process:

The application should be submitted by email to the Jessie Street Trust: jessiestreet.trust@gmail.com by the closing date of Friday, 23rd February, 2018.

The winning applicant will be invited to the annual Jessie Street Lunch, to be held at NSW Parliament House on Friday 23rd March, 2018, to receive the grant and speak briefly about the project. The speaker at the 2018 lunch will be Helen Clark.

If you have any questions, please contact us via jessiestreet.trust@gmail.com